Dear
Slovene / European

Recent important discoveries have been made in the fields of linguistics, history, ethnogenesis, and ethnology. The conference will present new research and interpretations of ancient inscriptions, as well as linguistic connections among Indo-European peoples.

- Slovene inscription on a 2,400-year-old situla
- India and migrations in antiquity
- A purely Slovene language on the Etruscan statue
- What does the inscription on the famous Venetic sword reveal?
- Slovenes can understand language once spoken in the southern Italy
- The story of the inscriptions from Pyrgi
- Workshop: Reading ancient inscriptions

The authors will personally present their findings and will be happy to answer any questions you may have.

Best regards,
The Conference
Origin of Slovenes and Europeans
